

MABEE AND KNAPP FOR COMMISSION

The Joint Control of Canadian and American Railroads May be Vested in This Board

Washington, D.C., July 15—An international railway commission with supervisory authority over the railroads of the United States and Canada may be the result of action taken by this government in the appointment of Chairman Martin A. Knapp, of the interstate commerce commission as the representative of the United States to confer with J. P. Mabee, chief of the railway commission Canada. The announcement of Judge Knapp's appointment was made by the department as follows: "The secretary of state has designated Martin A. Knapp, chairman of the interstate commerce commission as the representative of this government to confer with J. P. Mabee, chairman of the railway commission of Canada, on the subject of the joint control of international traffic rates. It is understood that meetings between Mr. Snapp and Mr. Mabey will take place once at points arranged in the United States or Canada, or both, during the remainder of the summer, upon the completion of the conferences a report with recommendations will be made by the commissions either jointly to both governments or separately to their respective governments."

The appointment of Judge Knapp and Mr. Mabey is the result of considerable correspondence and diplomatic interchanges between the United States and Canada. More than a year ago the subject was broached first in a letter from Mr. Mabey to Judge Knapp. It was pointed out that the creasing traffic between the United States and Canada would render full control over rates in the future more difficult unless some joint action were taken. It was realized that the acquisition of Canadian terminals by American roads presented over-increasing difficulties. In the present circumstances it is not possible to compel railway or express companies

Regulate Inter-Country Traffic. The interstate commerce commission and the Canadian commission require roads under its jurisdiction to do the same, but neither body can compel two or more carriers to this with international traffic and the shipper a through bill of lading from any point in one country to any point in the other. The reasonableness of rates between points in one country and points in Canada is also a question of serious importance to shippers. In order to determine drive question as to rates that arise it is necessary for the shipper to institute a proceeding before the interstate commerce commission or the Canadian railway commission even when the result is not satisfactory. The difficulties practically involved by existing trials lead into the inconclusiveness of competition through rates as applied to international traffic. No power does not exist that can require carriers engaged in this international transportation to establish what may be officially regarded as reasonable through rates and to apportion those rates among the participating carriers in the event of a disagreement. The only way that the international traffic can be based upon a combination of rates to the United States and to Canada is by the agreement of the

Will Meet in August.
While no definite arrangements yet have been perfected for the conference, it is likely that Chairman Knapp and Mr. Mabey will meet in Ottawa sometime in August. It is not improbable that a subsequent be held in Washington. It will be the effort of the representatives of two governments to adjust the matter so as to make it possible to submit a report and recommendations at the beginning of the session of United States congress in December.

C. N. R. REPORTS GOOD.

H. Advises That Conditions throughout West Promise Abundant Yield.

Minneapolis, July 14.—Crop reports for the past week, furnished by the United States Northern Plains

On the railway, show that about the country. It is raining here, almost in every section, excellent. Gentle rains have visited the farmers and this with the late warm weather has worked wonders in the development of good crops and pump action. In Manitoba the crops are generally doing fine. The crop conditions in the west are in the top condition. The wheat crop is abundant in this district. It is the best from White Plains. From Plains to Edmonton, news of really encouraging nature has been received, as well as from the south, touched by the road beyond there. Three or four districts it has been reported that the yield this year will come up to that of last year, but in the isolated cases the weather of the past ten days caused a welcome revival in the ance of the fields.

MAGNIFICENT CROPS IN THE STONEY PLAIN

Thirty Bushels to the Acre—This field ripens it will not be less than thirty to thirty-five bushels to the acre. "You may think I'm exaggerating, but I have seen a bushel to the acre one way and a bushel and a quarter and a half the other way. I would not be at all surprised to see a bushel and a half to the acre on old land which should yield thirty-five bushels to the acre. Neighboring farms and grain experts who have seen the crops in the Stoney Plain have expressed a like opinion to the Bulletin.

Nearer to Edmonton, on the farm of Wm. Lang, eight miles west of the city, and one mile south of the line line, a splendid field of fall wheat was inspected by the Bulletin, which promises from thirty to thirty-five bushels to the acre. This wheat head ed out in the latter part of June and Mr. Lang expects it will be ready for cutting by August 15.

Red Field in Seven Years.—"I think that the present crop of fall wheat is better than last year," said Mr. Lang in answer to an inquiry by the Bulletin. "I have been growing fall wheat now for seven years, and it is the best crop I have ever had. I expect over thirty bushels to the acre, but don't like to guess, so don't put your bets on it."

Mr. Lang has also twenty-five acres of spring wheat in splendid condition, his half-section farm. He has a good crop of oats, but does not expect to get more than twenty-five bushels to the acre.

J. J. Welburn has seventy-five acres of spring wheat on summer-fallow on his farm, ten miles west of Edmonton. The wheat is in splendid condition. Improved field. It was sown early in the middle of May, and is now ready to cut in the first part of August. Mr. Welburn looks for a yield of twenty-five bushels to the acre. The grain is not very thick, but the heads are extra full and the straw is also extra heavy. It has nearly eighty acres of fall wheat which should give a good average yield of 120 bushels to the acre, and extra full heads.

"I would like to go very high," said Mr. Welburn when asked for an estimate of the yield of his field of fall wheat. "I would like to go as high as thirty-five bushels to the acre, but I don't like to guess, so don't put your bets on it."

E. Elphinstone, a neighbor of Mr. Welburn, has thirty acres of spring wheat, Mr. Elphinstone is now in making estimates, but says that he has no complaint about the crop. "This is my seventh harvest here," he said, "and judging from the appearance of the crop last year at this time, I should have six or seven bushels more to the acre than last year."

John McCallum has ninety acres of spring wheat on fall plowing on his farm, eleven miles west of Edmonton. Mr. McCallum expects a yield of "fair," meaning that it should yield twenty-five bushels to the acre. He has a twenty-acre field of fall wheat, but it is not in as good condition as the spring wheat. It is in a big field of fall wheat this year, inspired by the success of his neighbors.

John McCallum's Field.—A magnificent field of fall wheat, the grain standing over four feet high and fully headed out, lies some distance from the city, on the farm of John McCallum, M.P., of Spruce Grove Centre.

Mr. McCallum has a thirty-acre field of fall wheat, but it is not in as good condition as the spring wheat. It is in a big field of fall wheat this year, inspired by the success of his neighbors.

Only last week one resident had been taken to the hospital for a heart attack. In his room, but did not consider the threat of sufficient importance to require medical attention.

Petty thefts have also taken place in the city. A man was arrested on the charge of stealing a pair of shoes from a store. The man was arrested on the charge of stealing a pair of shoes from a store.

From the German Lutheran Church at Stoney Plain, for seven or eight miles, a good stretch of country crops was observed. South of Spruce Grove Centre on the farm of J. J. Welburn, O. Oppenheuser, Amvill Zeiler and others have fine fields of wheat and oats to be seen.

PERSONAL.
R. Dunbar left yesterday for Vancouver. J. Travis Barker and Mrs. Barker returned Saturday on a visit to Pacific Coast points.

Mr. McManis left this afternoon for Banff. Thomas English and Mrs. English left for the coast on the train to Seattle, Vancouver and Victoria.

It is reported that the morning for Portland, Ore. J. B. Grange left yesterday for the coast on the train to Seattle, Vancouver and Victoria.

M. W. Hopkins, who obtained considerable prominence in the city with the A. & G. W. railway deal, will return here in a few days to complete purchase of blocks of land in the Verretrie district. Mr. Crawford is a timber king of Oklahoma, and has a large amount of capital at his disposal. He owns vast timber lands in the states, and controls large lumber mills. He also controls railway lines throughout the timber areas, and has made a huge fortune at the business.

DELAY IN SHIPMENTS.
The Canadian Inspection Co., who are representing the city in the purchase of material for the street railway extension, have written the commissioner that the acquisition for the rails will not be ready for shipment before September and the rails cannot come to hand till an even later date. This statement gives away the fact that the acquisition and extension might be completed in time for the August sale.

SOLICITOR GENERAL HERE.
Hon. Jacques Humeau, solicitor general of Canada, with his son and daughter and a friend, Mr. Playfair, are visiting in the city. He is the son of M. LeChambre, Victoria aviator. The solicitor general will be returning on a trip to the coast. The present solicitor general represents Threms and Mr. Maizes in the Port House. He was first elected at the election of 1910. He was re-elected in 1914. In 1917 he was sworn in as solicitor general for the Canadian territory, and he is now a successful candidate in 1918.

MICHIGAN CAPITALISTS HERE.
A party of Michigan capitalists who intend investing large sums of money in Canadian territory, reached the city last night over the Grand Trunk Pacific railway and are guests today at the King Edward hotel. They are five in the party. Messrs. Hugh Dickie, George Kerr, J. K. Kierulff, A. L. Seeley and J. Eversall. All are from Marquette, Michigan.

Mr. Dickie, one of the leaders of the party, informed the Bulletin this morning that he had secured a great deal in Michigan about the fertility of the land in the Edmonton district. He said that he had secured a large tract of land if he could get the necessary funds to carry it out. Tomorrow a trip will be made through the country lying north of Lake Wapiti. North of the lake which lies several miles back from the lake shore, there is a tract of land which is inspected by the Michiganders. The party is prepared to purchase several hundred acres.

CITY BOARD TO EXAMINE COMES.
The latest commodity to come under the ban of the eminent chemists of the city is cream. The health department is planning to get samples of cream from all parts of the city, and these will be analyzed and their healthfulness, or otherwise, determined. Most of the cream used in Edmonton are manufactured in the city and are a fairly reliable source of information. The pink and yellow cream sometimes seen in the smaller stores are not good, and it is suggested that it is this kind that is most dangerous.

Another matter connected with the frozen delivery for summer consumption that will be of interest to Edmontonians is the fact that the health department is on the verge of making a regulation which will absolutely deny what may be used and what may not be used in the manufacture of ice cream. At the present time, impure ice cream might be sold at a profit, but the general food laws, but it is proposed to get more definite regulations and then the city health department will make regular inspections and analysis in the endeavor to see that nothing deleterious finds its way into the interior economy of young Edmonton by the ice cream route.

WEIRD MISTAKES IN DIRECTORY.
One would think that anyone issuing a directory of the British empire, which makes a pretense of giving exact information in regard to the overseas dominions, would have at least a fairly accurate knowledge of the geography of the Dominion of Canada. The secretary of the Edmonton board of trade has received some specimens pages of "The Chambers of Commerce Directory of the British Empire," edited by Chas. E. Parns—London for 1911. The board of trade has received a number of copies of the directory, and the board is headed "British North America" although that name was dropped as the designation of the British empire in the directory.

The editor claims that the information contained in the directory is correct and to be sure. It is not likely that the Edmonton board of trade will take many copies of this so-called year book.

TO CONSIDER TENDERS.

At the meeting of the city commissioners this afternoon the tenders for the new hall and the extension to the city hall will be considered. These tenders are now in the hands of the architect, James Henderson. It is likely that the tender for the hall and the extension will be awarded.

BUYING LAND IN VERRETRIE.

For the purpose of locating in land in the Verretrie district, J. B. Crawford, a wealthy lumberman of Oklahoma, and B. Becker, of the same city, are in Edmonton yesterday, and will return here in a few days to complete purchase of blocks of land in the Verretrie district. Mr. Crawford is a timber king of Oklahoma, and has a large amount of capital at his disposal. He owns vast timber lands in the states, and controls large lumber mills. He also controls railway lines throughout the timber areas, and has made a huge fortune at the business.

FOOTBALL GAME TO-NIGHT.

What promise to be a good football match takes place tonight on the second street grounds between the "Calles" "A" and "B" teams. The away team is from the city of Vancouver, who have been going some lately, having beaten the famous V.M.C.A. by two goals, and the "Calles" in an important league game. At this stage of the season, the "Calles" are doing well. The Calles have to win every game to put them in the running for the championship, so a good fast game of football will be put up. The visitors will move his family and outfit to Canada, this fall from his old farm in the vicinity of Delta, B.C. The visitor section which brought the high price of fifty dollars an acre went under cultivation. In the window of M. Rumsell & Co., 148 Jasper avenue, west, the real estate firm which put through the deal, samples of grain, grass and fruits grown on the land. Branches of red currant, white currant and gooseberry bushes bearing luxuriant clusters of fruit are shown. A sample of timothy hay five feet high, barley heads over six inches high, barley five feet high and oats having a length of straw of over four feet and a half are also shown with samples of alfalfa and red clover.

Mr. Wakeford, who is now retiring from farming, settled on the Clover farm which he has just been in for ten years ago. He will be in future years in the city.

WILL BUILD MILL-CREEK BRIDGE.
Some days ago a deputation of citizens from the Highland Park, visited the Premier for the purpose of petitioning the immediate building of a bridge across Mill Creek.

Word was received from the Public Works department that the bridge would be built this year.

An Open Letter

Newwood, July 14th, 1910.
Dear Sir, or Madam:—

Owing to the continued pressure of our numerous patrons, and the incapacity of our Newwood Store to cope with the large and ever-increasing Farm Trade, we have decided to open up a Branch at the Packing Plant.

The Store will be situated in the North-west Corner of the New Block opposite the "Travel" Hotel, and on the Main Road. There is a large number of the farmers who find it very inconvenient getting in to town for their provisions during the busy season; so it is to your advantage that we are opening a Branch at the Packing Plant.

We intend to carry a large and varied stock of General Merchandise, amounting to about $10,000, consisting of Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, and Groceries. The stock will be a new one, bought specially for this store, and we expect to open about the 15th of this month.

Our expenses will be light and we can save you anywhere from 15 to 20 per cent. on your purchases. Flour, Food and Groceries will all be fresh and new. Dry Goods and Gent's Furnishings at prices that will surprise you. Boots and Shoes from the finest manufacturers in Canada, at Rock Bottom Prices. Peabody's and King of the Road Overalls for men of all sizes. Produce will be handled either for CASH or TRADE.

Goods will be delivered to the country by our own delivery wagon to any reasonable distance.

Thank you orders. A trial order will convince you that we will always give you a square deal. We are

REDMOND THE VICTOR IN A GREAT BATTLE

Irish Leader Is Now in a Position to Declare Terms to the British Government in the Matter of Reform of the Lords—Circumstances Aid Them.

By J. J. HARRIS.

London, July 14.—Redmond scored last week. I have pointed to the difficulty of his voting for the bill while the conference over the veto was proceeding and the veto struggle held up for weeks.

Redmond once more was face to face with the same problem as when he was some months ago—the impossibility of reconciling Ireland to the acceptance of the budget unless Ireland was convinced that a strenuous and hopeful campaign against the House of Lords was given as compensation.

With the veto runs altered for the moment by the conference and the budget with no relief on the whistle, coming on immediately, the situation for some days last week was decidedly menacing. If the government had insisted on proceeding through all the stages of the budget and at the same time had independently prolonged the conference and the veto fight, Redmond would have been obliged to vote against the budget and destroy the government and the government.

Many Great Reasons.
Such a step, though inevitable, must have brought about a grave crisis fitter such as the postponement of the fight against the Lords, the postponement of home rule, the postponement of the Liberals, and the postponement of the Unionist parties in Irish politics instead of one.

There were accordingly many anxious hours for the conference last week. The situation now has enormously cleared. Another week has been a winter season coupled with a postponement of the later stages of the budget to the autumn, leaves Redmond master of the situation.

By the time the conference sittings begin one of two things will have happened. Either the government and the Tories will have agreed to the veto, or the conference will have broken up. In either case the veto fight once more will be raging with the old fury.

Power Held by Redmond.
If the government makes a compromise hostile to Redmond's policy, Redmond can defeat the budget and overthrow the government. If the government enters into a compromise with the Tories, Redmond can defeat the agencies fight against the Lords, Irish union will back Redmond in every stage of the fight, as Ireland's price for a real fight against the Lords and home rule.

An incidental advantage of the winter sitting is that the Tories, De-lin, and Boyle, who will go on an American tour beginning with the Russian convention can remain for 2 to 3 weeks in America, where all indications reaching us promise a most fruitful campaign.

Though the prospects therefore are now enormously brighter than last week, Redmond's difficulties are not entirely removed. Lloyd George made an enormous blunder in yielding to the clamor of the ultra-conservatives to the detriment of the moderate anti-whisky sentiment, which largely discount the sentiment against the whisky tax.

Whisky Tax Stories Exaggerated.
The results on the Irish whisky trade will be serious, though greatly exaggerated, and O'Brien and Healy will make this tax a weapon with which to attack Redmond. But the game was tried in the spring and ended in a hopeless rout. Redmond and his friends in Ireland, subscriptions continue to roll in weekly in increasing volume.

O'Brien's immense speeches and his open alliance with the Tories are driving the people from his ranks, and Healy is doomed in Louth. In addition, the temperance movement in Ireland has made such gigantic strides in the last year that the anti-whisky sentiment will largely discount the sentiment against the
whisky tax.

The conference situation still is mysterious and nebulous. The general impression is that it must end in a failure. This was reflected in the wildspread rumor that the conference already had burst up. The impatience among the radicals also has reached such a high point that a written remonstrance would have been presented to Asquith if the session of the master of Elinck, the chief Liberal whip, had not calmed the mutineers.

Conference Will Be Harried.
The result of all this pressure must be to hurry up the conference and strengthen the Liberal position against any weak concession to the Tories. Winston Churchill still speaks hopefully of the possibility of a compromise in the conference, and the successes of the Liberals in the recent bye-elections will help the Liberals and weaken the Tories.

In any case, however, Redmond's success in getting the winter sitting has pleased the radicals as much as the Irish. Once again Redmond has shown himself the real leader of the English radicals and has made the radicals as much as the Irish tactics win.

Thus the week, which began in grey, confusion, and a closer union of the English and Irish progressive forces, and the near future promise either the acceptance by the Tories of some compromise which will give the Liberals and Irish most of what they want or an immediate and more momentous reversal of the compromise against the present powers of the House of Lords.

Lloyd George Leads Aid.
It was the uncomparable optimism of Lloyd George that carried the conference through. Nobody cared for it—except, of course, the king, nobody believed in it but he. His success in this, as in so many other transactions since he took office, is a remarkable proof of the enormous influence which is exercised in political life by sheer tenacity of purpose and clearness of aim.

The nineteen men who compose the British cabinet are like all authorities of men, of varied intelligence, aims, and temperaments; with the result that such, like all bodies of men appointed to do exceptional work, they are feeble and uncertain of purpose. Some are able-men, some are not; some are resolute of purpose but narrow of vision, some broad of vision but lacking of purpose.

But the sprightly little man, with his fervid Celtic temperament, his fervid dash like all Celtic with moments of deep gloom—with his activity of mind and of character—dashed again by great lapses into apathetic lethargy, after the manner of Celtic—the little man has become the controlling force of the cabinet by the sheer force of his uncomparable vitality and his persistent purpose.

Strength Imparted by Birrell.
The most remarkable feature of the conference and in some respects the most unexpected—leaving out Asquith, Lloyd George and Halford—Augustine Birrell. The addition of his name enormously strengthened the conference from every point of view.
He is a man of first class intelligence —he is a lawyer with much legal force, especially on constitutional law; and he is so winning a personality that he must tell heavily in transactions where, after all, other considerations are bound to be a dominant factor.

A brilliant, spontaneous wit, with the keenest sense of humor, a sparkling conversationalist, one of the most brilliant pieces of his time, and withal simple, good hearted, high spirited—he is a man after Halford's own heart.

Birrell, furthermore, recommends himself to the Irish by his courage and fearless, unshakable faith in home rule. In addition, he is a man who many radical cars and heart breaking difficulties of such an impossible nature that Lloyd George, the Irish, and the Unionist parties in Ireland, Birrell's love for the Irish and the cause for their cause never has abated.

The haunting dread of course, of the Tories with regard to home rule, the appointment of Birrell does a great deal to remove that dread. He ever else he gives away in any conference of which he is a member, and he is a man of first class intelligence.

Indeed, Ireland has two great personalities besides the two great personalities in the conference. One is the chief of the conference. It is almost impossible to overstate the importance of the problems that have been settled for many years in the conference of which he is a member.

Churchill Has Two Safeguards.
Indeed, Ireland has two great personalities besides the two great personalities in the conference. One is the chief of the conference. It is almost impossible to overstate the im-
conference of which he is a member.

For more than thirty years they have been sending to parliament an overwhelming majority of the representatives in favor of Welsh disem-powerment. In the last parliament there were thirty-four adherents of Welsh disestablishment; now there are just thirty-four representatives from Wales; that is to say that the country declared for Welsh disem-powerment by an absolutely unanimous vote—an almost unprecedented fact in the history of any country.

But Welsh disestablishment not only has been carried, but some rather farther than ever, with the result that Wales is impatient, angry, almost rebellious.

The one obstacle to Welsh disem-powerment is the same one obstacle as stands in the way of home rule for Ireland—the house of lords.

There have been majorities in favor of these reforms in house of commons several times during the last twenty years and in the last house of commons Welsh disem-powerment would have been carried by a large majority, but it was not even proposed, for the simple reason that the house of commons is not even in the house of commons, the house of lords it was known, would have rejected the proposal. And there is no such enthusiasm for Welsh disem-powerment among the majority of Englishmen as to justify the government in wasting a whole session in passing a measure doomed to certain death in the house of lords.

Now Lloyd George is the embodiment not only of the Welsh temperament but of the Welsh temperament. He is a man of first class intelligence, and he is so winning a personality that he must tell heavily in transactions where, after all, other considerations are bound to be a dominant factor.

mit Welsh disestablishment will also admit home rule. If, therefore, Lloyd George is bound to make a gain for Welsh disestablishment—and he is as I have shown—he is bound equally to make a gain for home rule.

There is no doubt that the conference because I think the Liberal negotiators either would or could betray home rule. The peril lies in another direction altogether. The Liberals may assent to some patched-up arrangement with regard to the house of lords which may divide their own forces.

There is a rumor about that Lloyd George favors conference between the two houses of parliament in case of disagreement; the lords, of course, being considerably reduced in number at such a conference; that is to say, that instead of all the six hundred appearing they should select their powers and duties to 100 or 150.
There is about as much as would be Liberals, leaving three-quarters of the seats to the Tories.

Such a representation would be counted of course if the Liberals lost the Irish but it is a substantial majority of something like 100.
